

This is a re-opening of the call for expression. Candidates who already applied do not need to re-submit an application.

National individual consultant to conduct a case study on non-standard forms of employment in Mongolia

The ILO Country office for China and Mongolia is seeking for a qualified national individual consultant to conduct a case study on non-standard forms of employment in Mongolia ILO Mongolia.

Those who are interested to review the Terms of Reference and further to apply, please click